

PRESS RELEASE 7.11.16

WORLD CHAMPIONS AT SOMERSBY SPEEDWAY

Central Coast Junior Motorcycle Club will host the prestigious Redloh Cup at Allen Park in Somersby this coming Saturday 19th November.

A first class field of 16 young 125cc junior speedway riders from all over NSW will be in action including twelve year old Harrison Ryan from Warnervale, nephew of 5 time NSW Champion and local legend Mick Poole and Lex Tracey great great nephew of 6 time Australian Champion, the late Billy Sanders.

The Club will also be running an information session for families with kids interested in trying their hand at speedway racing and a coaching clinic for all competitors.

Legendary speedway coach Mick Holder will be assisted by his two superstar sons, Chris Holder 2012 World Speedway Champion and winner of this years Melbourne Speedway GP and Jack Holder 2016 Australian Under 21 Speedway Champion, both of whom started their careers riding 125cc junior speedway at the Central Coast Junior Motorcycle Club. Mathew Gilmore the current FIM 250cc Speedway World Champion will also be on hand to provide expert advice and guidance.

'We are hoping to attract a bumper crowd to support the speedway stars of tomorrow and showcase the sport to young central coast dirt bike riders interested in racing speedway when they turn 9 years old ' says publicity officer Terry Starbuck

'Junior speedway is a very cost effective way for kids to have some fun on a motorcycle and get a chance to follow in the footsteps of the many international speedway stars who cut their teeth at the Somersby junior speedway track, including Chris Holder who agreed to support the Redloh Cup (Redloh is Holder spelt backwards) to help up and coming speedway riders.

'We are receiving a lot of support from local business community including Coastal Motorcycle Centre in and Bunning's in West Gosford who have provided prizes for the event'

Information and Coaching Clinic from 10am, racing starts at 12.30pm.
Admission free with hot food and refreshments available from 9.am
